Saima It was great! Waiting for the recording now, would like to go through it all again

Carol Tice So...no article writing or freelancing questions?

Saima wanted to submit an article for J school but i had trouble finding experts. I emailed a lot of pediatric allergists bu not one of them got back.

Carol Tice Look for book authors

Linda Formichelli <http://www.therenegadewriter.com/2012/03/12/the-art-of-the-simultaneous-query/>

Jennifer Crain Great! Thank you, Linda.

Sylvia Thank you.

Linda Formichelli Sure!

Renee T you dotn send the article with the query right? because if you did and then multiple editors published it withotu first contacting you, you woudl get in hto water, right?

Saima thank you!

Sue_1 Question: What is the best way to find real people sources? is it okay use friends as sources if they have appropriate experience in the topic?

Linda Formichelli Renee, normally you're not writing the article without an assignment...you're pitching, getting the assignemtn and specs, and THEN writing to spec.

Carol Tice If you have the draft Renee, send a query and just say you have it written, can you send it in? That way you're not sending the draft lots of places at once.

Renee T ok, thank you for clarifying

Linda Formichelli Yes! Like my Writer's Digest recommends.

Renee T looking forward to the fear bustign class, i'm so terrified my writign isnt good enough

Linda Formichelli Look forward to having you there! One thing we'll mention is that the writers who are worried that their writing sucks are ALWAYS the better writers.

Sue_1 Cool, thanks

Renee T i'm not in writers den yet.. i wotn add any more busienns expenses until i have a decent income

JohnM Thanks for the great critiques!
